She's your friend. She's the friendly, vivacious person you meet each day in the hall.

She's interested in you and your ambitions. She sets high standards and expects you to meet them.

Through valuable assistance she helps you to overcome your problems in language and to meet the high goals set by your other teachers.

For four magical years she has been our beloved teacher.

SHAKESPEARE

Senior Class

On August 27, 1963, sixteen good-looking, alert and highly intelligent students claimed their titles of Seniors of '64 after eleven long years of hard work. This, our last year, was filled with many activities; selling annual ads, the Junior-Senior, and finally commencement. Though we all had looked forward to this night, we were still sorry to leave "dear old MHS."

Left to right: President, Jimmy Eddins; Vice-President, Donnie Lowery; Treasurer, Don Vaughn; Secretary, Peggy Steele.

Our Alma Mater

For away from noisy tumult
Stands our cherished school,
Where we learn to live together
By the Golden Rule.

We are ever struggling onward
To attain our goal.
Morven High School stands
before us
True and brave and bold.

Now we lift our joyous chorus,
Thee we love so well.
Hail to thee, old Alma Mater,
Morven High School, Hail!

To be, or not to be: that is the question:

Junior Class

We were a very proud group of thirty-five youngsters as we entered the Junior Class in September, 1963. There have been many things to keep us busy. We ordered our class rings and sold magazines to raise money for the Junior-Senior, on which we will soon begin work and to which we are all looking forward. What fun it is to be upperclassmen!

SOPHOMORES

Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player

Sophomore Class

We're Sophomores! To Juniors and Seniors this fact isn't anything spectacular, but to us who were last year's Freshmen it's wonderful! Of course, along with the name Sophomores comes another year of ups and downs. These first months have gone by smoothly with the exception, of course, of report cards. Though we are now distinguished Sophomores, we eagerly await our Junior year and the activities it will bring.

So mixed in him, that Nature might stand up,

Freshman Class

When we entered high school, we were a little scared, but we soon got over this and settled down to work. We have enjoyed this year although we think we have had to clean up the shop and home economics building more often than anyone else! We are looking forward to our sophomore year. We are going to work hard to graduate in 1967.

SHAKESPEARE

Mere words can never express the Seniors' gratitude for a wonderful prom. From the moment we entered through a doorway hung with billowing streamers, we were in a different world, a springtime world of soft breezes, beautiful music, colorful flowers, and servants awaiting our command. For four happy, never-to-be-forgotten hours, we were the honored guests. Our "enchantment" was complete.
